

BULLETIN

Embassy of DPR Korea in Abuja, Nigeria

10th June, 2018

Kim Jong Un Visits Pyongyang Taedonggang Seafood Restaurant

Pyongyang, June 9(KCNA)-The respected Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un visited the newly-built Pyongyang Taedonggang Seafood Restaurant together with his wife Ri Sol Ju.

The restaurant with the best conditions has indoor ponds of various kinds of freshwater and sea fish, a variety of dining rooms and stands of processed food to serve various cooked fishes of higher quality on the spot to the taste and liking of customers.

Noting that he appreciated the design and construction of the restaurant while examining its data from the relevant sector, Kim Jong Un said the restaurant looks very wonderful and unique and named it "Pyongyang Taedonggang Seafood Restaurant".

He went round different parts of the restaurant whose interior and exterior are all built in a unique, exquisite and graceful manner, and expressed great satisfaction over the fact that soldier-builders did another good thing for the people, saying with pleasure that one more service center for the people has appeared in Pyongyang like Okryu Restaurant representing the city.

Seeing sturgeon, salmon, rainbow-trout and other fishes of higher quality swimming in indoor ponds and stands of processed foods built to suit the feature of the restaurant, he said that the people would be pleased when they are served with cooked and processed tasty and nutritious, fresh seafood.

Going round different dining rooms such as popular dining rooms, family dining rooms and dining rooms serving traditional dishes, he said that the restaurant should make our working people have meals together with their families as well as foreign foods and serve visiting foreigners.

He stressed the need for the restaurant to give special attention to raising the quality of cooked seafood and meticulously organize its service so that the customers may not feel the slightest inconveniences.

He called for efforts to provide the people with better and happier life and set forth the concrete tasks for management and service activities of the restaurant.

He gave an instruction for the opening of the restaurant, saying our people would be delighted to hear that another public service center has appeared in an excellent location on the bank of the River Taedong.

Accompanying him were Ri Su Yong, vice-chairman of the C.C., Workers' Party of Korea, and Han Kwang Sang, Ri Pyong Chol, Kim Yo Jong, Kim Yong Su and Jo Yong Won, senior officials of the C.C., WPK. -0-

